MEDICINAL.

When the doctor comes to prescribe for any "female weakness," the first thing he insists upon is an examination. The treatment he prescribes is pretty sure to call for the local applications, so naturally distasteful to every modest woman. These humiliating measures are generally absolutely unnecessary, and there is seldom any reason why a woman should submit to them. This statement is made on the authority of Dr. R. V. Pierce, an eminent specialist in the treatment of diseases of women. For thirty years he has been the chief consulting physician at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y. Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription was designed for the cure of all diseases and disorders of the distinctly feminine organs. It has been successful, even beyond the expectations of its discoverer. It acts directly on these delicate and sensitive organs, and brings them back to perfect vigorous health. Its effect is almost immediate. It allays inflammation, stops unbearable, nerve-racking pains, as well as unnatural, debilitating drains on the system. It corrects distressing and painful irregularities, and cures where doctors fail. Every woman who would like to know the truth about her own physiology in health and disease, should have a copy of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. This remarkable book has over 1000 pages and is a complete medical library in one volume. It contains several chapters on the reproductive physiology of woman, written in plain language, and illustrated fully and very carefully. It tells exactly what the "Favorite Prescription" will do for women, and offers many useful suggestions for the preservation of health. Nearly 200,000 copies were sold at $1.00 each. This is the greatest sale ever reached by any medical work ever printed in the English language. The new edition of half-million copies, paper-covered, is now offered at 50 cents. To any one who will send at once, stamps to discover the cost of mailing only, to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., in cloth binding to cost extra (5 cents in mail).

THE GAZETTE.

The ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE, has entered upon its 98th year not the least impaired by reason of its age. On the contrary its length of years has served to add to its strength and vigor. Editorially it says what it thinks, and says it in a plain, pointed, pungent style that removes all doubt as to its thinking what it says; and as an industrious newspaper it has few equals.—London Enterprise.
The people of Northern Virginia will unite in hearty congratulations to the ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE, which, on Friday last (New Year's Day), entered upon its 98th year. It has outlived all its earlier contemporaries, and never was it more deserving of public confidence and support than it is at present. It has ever been true to its State and people, never, for the sake of popularity or profit, deviating from the line of patriotic duty. Like the Fairfax Herald, it always courteously but firmly expresses its honest convictions, and when we celebrate our centennial anniversary, may the good old GAZETTE then, as now, be one of our most valued exchanges.—Fairfax Herald.
The ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE entered upon its 98th year January 1st. For nearly a century it has daily chronicled the happenings of the city; and for Virginia news it is the best paper published in the Old Dominion. It has always, as now, been edited with much ability, and has been influential. When it refers to President Cleveland it manifests a distemper—a carefully cultivated distemper. But Mr. Cleveland isn't minding a little thing like that—Charleston, West Virginia, Free Press.
The ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE entered upon its 98th year last Friday. It is a live, newsy paper, well edited. It is our stand by for general news items.—Piedmont Virginian.
The famous old ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE entered upon its 98th year the 1st of January. It is an excellent paper, growing better as it grows older, and we wish for it continued prosperity.—Shepherdstown, W. Va., Register.
The ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE has passed its 98th birthday. There was never a time in its history when its editorial management was abler or its columns more readable than to day.—Charlottesville Progress.

PIGRIMAGE TO THE HOLY LAND.—A dispatch from New York says: "It is expected that the pilgrimage of Americans to the Holy Land and Rome this year will be unusually large. Already a very large number have signified their intention of making the journey. The party will sail on the steamer Werra next Saturday. 'We expect to be gone about three months,' said Francis H. Throup, of Brooklyn, who will have charge of the pilgrims, 'and will visit all points of interest in the Holy Land, and afterward will go to Rome, where the members of the party will be presented to the pope by Cardinal Satolli and Bishop Keane.' Following the custom of former pilgrimages, the Stars and Stripes will be carried through the Holy Land, and finally deposited in the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem. A hand some flag, made of banner silk, with the badge of the pilgrimage and the year '1897' embroidered on it, has been especially manufactured for the purpose."
IN HARD LUCK.—Ex-County Clerk Owen Ferguson, of Fond du Lac, Wis., whose accounts are said to be about $700 short, has made two attempts upon his life. Each time he shot himself, aiming at his heart, but the bullets lodged above that organ. Ferguson has experienced a series of misfortunes. A year ago his wife died, and subsequently he was defeated as a candidate for county clerk. He had long been a cripple, and a few months ago he fell and fractured his leg.

The ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE entered upon its 98th year January 1st. For nearly a century it has daily chronicled the happenings of the city; and for Virginia news it is the best paper published in the Old Dominion. It has always, as now, been edited with much ability, and has been influential. When it refers to President Cleveland it manifests a distemper—a carefully cultivated distemper. But Mr. Cleveland isn't minding a little thing like that—Charleston, West Virginia, Free Press.
The ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE entered upon its 98th year last Friday. It is a live, newsy paper, well edited. It is our stand by for general news items.—Piedmont Virginian.
The famous old ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE entered upon its 98th year the 1st of January. It is an excellent paper, growing better as it grows older, and we wish for it continued prosperity.—Shepherdstown, W. Va., Register.
The ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE has passed its 98th birthday. There was never a time in its history when its editorial management was abler or its columns more readable than to day.—Charlottesville Progress.
The ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE has entered upon its 98th year. Like wine it grows better with age.—Staunton Spectator-Vindicator.

THE GAZETTE.

The ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE, has entered upon its 98th year not the least impaired by reason of its age. On the contrary its length of years has served to add to its strength and vigor. Editorially it says what it thinks, and says it in a plain, pointed, pungent style that removes all doubt as to its thinking what it says; and as an industrious newspaper it has few equals.—London Enterprise.
The people of Northern Virginia will unite in hearty congratulations to the ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE, which, on Friday last (New Year's Day), entered upon its 98th year. It has outlived all its earlier contemporaries, and never was it more deserving of public confidence and support than it is at present. It has ever been true to its State and people, never, for the sake of popularity or profit, deviating from the line of patriotic duty. Like the Fairfax Herald, it always courteously but firmly expresses its honest convictions, and when we celebrate our centennial anniversary, may the good old GAZETTE then, as now, be one of our most valued exchanges.—Fairfax Herald.
